1 v. tseregin on human rights declaration anniversary.

(rpt polish 051400) (port 1800)

2 valeriy (kulygin) on un declaration of human rights adopted

35 years ago. points out human rights, above all equality as one of such rights, cannot be realized in capitalist society, because there is exploitation of workers. one cannot talk of freedom of personality in capitalist society as well. the socialist society has established just social relations, it guarantees participation of citizens in state and public affairs, citing basic principles enshrined in soviet constitution.

(8 min: german 1700)

3 "tuesday talk," by observer gevgeniy ivanov re anniv of un declaration of human rights, stressing all soviet ppl enjoy right to work unlike those in capitalist countries, pointing out even soviet ppl living in ethnic areas have full employment. (7 min:

enguk 2000)

4 answer compiled by mikhail taratuta on what democ means in ussr, responding to listeners' question, re full employment, listeners ask how free ppl are to choose their job, reply is that many soviet ppl believe there is no such freedom for ppl in west, where there are huge numbers of unemployed, stressing full employments in ussr solves main social problem, whereas in capitalist countries unemployment is creating ever increasing number of social problems. (12 min: engna 2300)

11 "talking with you" feature: vyacheslav rostovtsev answers questions from listeners on u.s. nuclear arms buildup: on u.s. intervention in central america; disagreements among plo forces, and israeli massacre of palestine ppl. (10 min, overall: portbraz 2300)

12 best letter of this month-competition, by nikolay ivanov, ltrs described as best, read, they were sent by an algerian, pdry and tunisian listeners on u.s. actions in intnatl field, showing its endeavour to dominate ppl and nations. pdry listener on u.s. propaganda about distorting policy of ussr; tunisian listener on m. gorskiy. (arabic 1500)

13 listeners' mailbag: incl note on programs on soviet radio, tv programs and radio programs in foreign languages. (finnish 1630)

14 "let's talk it over": discussion program on subject of soviet life and politics, ltr from (edward jost) of london says concept of morality in ussr is generally completely different: in order to promote socialism, everything to achieve it is held to be justified, concludes hence soviet union must be focus of evil, anon speaker discusses intolerance of this attitude, adding that this is what western policy toward russians today amounts to, says to gain knowledge of true situation, due to distortions in western mass media, program concludes with views contained in ltr from another british listener who asked that his name should not be given, and this told about kindness he experienced at first hand from russian ppl after nazis occupied poland during war. (9 min: enguk 2000)

15 vladimir gurevich on figures published by cema secretariat on sale of licences to industrialized western nations by socialist countries, listing countries involved to prove western claims that ussr and other socialist countries are dependent on west for tech knowledge are false. (enguk 2000)

16 "reviewing your ltrs": u.s. listener says radio moscow gives out too much news and info about soviet stand; reason for this is that western media cannot be relied upon to give this info; for instance today all radi moscow's bulletins are followed by details of 5 dec press conf, u.s. listener says he likes historical talks by prof yakovlev about cold war and they are very informative, another two listeners say they enjoy moscow mailbag. (engna 0001)
